Grade 2, Theme 1, Week 1 -- Len and Linda's Picnic (accompanies Dragon Gets By) -- Sentences

Linda sat with her chin in her hand. "I can't think of a game to play," she said sadly. Ring, ring, ring went the bell. Ring, ring, ring. "Someone has come to visit," thought Linda.

Grade 2, Theme 1, Week 1 -- Len and Linda's Picnic (accompanies Dragon Gets By) -- Sentences

Linda went to her front door. "My best pal Len! I am glad you came to visit. I need a game to play," said Linda. "You are in luck," said Len. "I just bought a new ball. We can roll it and catch it. It will be fun."

Grade 2, Theme 1, Week 1 -- Len and Linda's Picnic (accompanies Dragon Gets By) -- Sentences

Just then, big drops of rain started falling. "We can't play outside when it is raining," said Linda. "This is a sad, sad day." Len sat down on the steps to think. Soon he said, "I know just what we need to make this sad day fun."

Grade 2, Theme 1, Week 1 -- Len and Linda's Picnic (accompanies Dragon Gets By) -- Sentences

Len went to the kitchen. He got a pad and a pen and made this list.

Grade 2, Theme 1, Week 1 -- Len and Linda's Picnic (accompanies Dragon Gets By) -- Sentences

Len found the things on his list. Linda packed them in a big basket. Len took the basket and left. Linda looked at the rain on the window. "This wet day is no fun. We can't picnic until it stops raining."

Grade 2, Theme 1, Week 1 -- Len and Linda's Picnic (accompanies Dragon Gets By) -- Sentences

"Linda," yelled Len. "Come see. You will think this game is fun." Linda looked and looked until she found Len in the den. "Look at this! It's an indoor picnic!" said Len. Linda jumped and down with glee.

Drip, drip, drip went the rain. Drip, drip, drip. But Len and Linda's picnic did not get wet.
