Grade 2, Theme 2, Week 5 -- The Vain Peacock (accompanies Focus on Fables) -- Sentences

Peacock had always been vain. After all, he did have a long, graceful neck. He did have a huge, colorful tail.

Grade 2, Theme 2, Week 5 -- The Vain Peacock (accompanies Focus on Fables) -- Sentences

And when Peacock struck a pose, his feathers glittered in the sun. Peacock looked at himself seven times each hour.

Grade 2, Theme 2, Week 5 -- The Vain Peacock (accompanies Focus on Fables) -- Sentences

"I was just saying how beautiful you are," said Crow. "It's a shame that we are the only ones who may admire you."

Grade 2, Theme 2, Week 5 -- The Vain Peacock (accompanies Focus on Fables) -- Sentences

"You're right!" said Peacock. "I will travel to the city. I will visit the King. He will tell everyone how beautiful I am!"

Grade 2, Theme 2, Week 5 -- The Vain Peacock (accompanies Focus on Fables) -- Sentences

Seven days later, Peacock came back. "I met the King of Binbick!" bragged Peacock. "He said I was a lovely bird."

Grade 2, Theme 2, Week 5 -- The Vain Peacock (accompanies Focus on Fables) -- Sentences

"Yes, really! Just ask anyone in Binbick," bragged Peacock. "And when I flew across the lake, the King said that I was more graceful than a swan."

"But Peacock, we can't go to Binbick," said Donkey quietly. "You must show us how well you sing. Show us how gracefully you fly, if you can."
