Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 1 -- Sunshine for the Circus (accompanies Chinatown) -- Sentences

Sunshine and beaches make circus people want to stay and play. Days get hotter. This means they can practice and play outside.

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 1 -- Sunshine for the Circus (accompanies Chinatown) -- Sentences

They practice exciting circus acts. Cheerful boys turn big cartwheels. Men swing far up. Arms and hands reach out and catch. It's the neatest show!

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 1 -- Sunshine for the Circus (accompanies Chinatown) -- Sentences

Other days, circus families choose to rest. Groups make the short trip to Shell Beach. Moms and dads shop at beach stores. Kids fish, splash, and hunt shells.

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 1 -- Sunshine for the Circus (accompanies Chinatown) -- Sentences

Circus families spend much time each day with animals. Horses splash in water and then shake it off. Three horses are bigger than the others. The little horses are the cutest! A man checks each horse's feet and legs.

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 1 -- Sunshine for the Circus (accompanies Chinatown) -- Sentences

The biggest cats do not get baths. The biggest cats just get brushed and fed. It's time to feed this lion fresh meat. Do you think they will brush his teeth?

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 1 -- Sunshine for the Circus (accompanies Chinatown) -- Sentences

Last noise, a loud noise shook the house. A family dashed outside. The moon looked bright. The stars looked brighter.

In a flash, the family knew what they had heard. A loud lion sounded louder than thunder! With the circus in town, life can be exciting!
