Mike knew he should be cleaning his room. But he was reading such a good book! It told about a lady who ruled a land near the sea. This queen looked silly but she did lots of neat tricks.

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 4 -- The Clean Team (accompanies Jamaica Louise James) -- Sentences

"Mike, we will leave for the park in ten minutes," she told him. "The town cookout starts at noon. You may joins us if your room is clean."

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 4 -- The Clean Team (accompanies Jamaica Louise James) -- Sentences

Mike looked around. His room was a real mess. Toys peeked out from under his bed. Heaps of jeans lay on the floor. Pictures he had made were left about.

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 4 -- The Clean Team (accompanies Jamaica Louise James) -- Sentences

Mike glanced up. He saw Jean and their dog Queen standing near the door. "We will help clean your room," said Jean. "We can make cleaning up fun."

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 4 -- The Clean Team (accompanies Jamaica Louise James) -- Sentences

Then she and Mike began to clean up the mess. Even Queen got in on the action. When she picked up a ball, Mike said, "Thanks, Queen! You're such a sweet lady!"

Grade 2, Theme 3, Week 4 -- The Clean Team (accompanies Jamaica Louise James) -- Sentences

Soon Mike's whole room was as neat as a pin. Mike could not believe his eyes. "Each toy is away," he said. "All the furniture is clean," said Jean. "We make a good team!"

Mike had fun at the cookout. He ate hot dogs and peach pie. He flew a kite. But the cookout was not the best part of Mike's day. It was cleaning up with the clean team.
